

Matthew Sale

BCom (Marketing) and DipGrad (Finance)

Matt has more than 15 years' experience in financial and trustee services industries, having held senior leadership roles at BNZ, NAB and Public Trust encompassing strategy, brand, marketing, sales and organisational transformation. Currently working for Metlifecare in development and sales, Matt is also a professional independent director of Trustees Executors Limited.

A passionate surfer with two groms, Matt is determined to help unify and guide Surfing NZ's affiliated members and the wider surfing community behind common goals of making surfing accessible and fun for all, and creating great opportunities and pathways for our young talent to succeed on the world stage.

He is a graduate of the University of Otago (BCom (Marketing) and DipGrad (Finance)) and a member of the New Zealand Institute of Directors.
