Surfing is in my blood and has been all my life; it is now flowing through the veins of another two generations of my family here in Sandy Bay. I am retired finally, giving me time to give back and actively advance the interests of my sport. I would bring with me Northland Surfers, Women Surfers and stand up for Maori Surfing interests.

I want to see Surfing NZ as an inclusive, progressive , vital organisation that is in tune with it's diverse community.

1969 – First surfboard

1979 – First competition NZ Surfing Championships

1981 – First (of six) Open Women's Titles NZ Surfing Championships
